

I listen to KLOVE radio station on a regular basis and it benefits me spiritual and gives me peace of mind. I believe that when people listen to this station that road rage is minimized because of the peace that is portrayed on this radio station.

The community as a whole needs KLOVE for inspirational music and words of faith. In an angry and unjust world a Christian radio station is needed to bring balance back.